when the result is announced, for who knows how many have bridged the gap from the bottom of success since the standings were last counted. This uncertainty has stimulated every candidate to increase her vote total by securing every subscription possible, for each has realized that their competitors are doing that very thing.

TIME IS STILL TIME

There is still time to make a winning race. Reward hovers near, waiting for those who have the stamina to grasp it. Only a very little added work may place you among the happy circle of candidates who will be honored with the splendid prizes that are to come.

The future holds much in store—it means a taste from the cup of cheer, and above all, it means hours of golden sunshine—the sunshine that enters the heart and makes it happy.

VOTE OFFER ENDS TONIGHT

The big 150,000 Extra Vote offer closes at 9 o'clock TONIGHT and every candidate who is really in the race and out to win a prize should get in at least one club of $20 on this offer.

THE LAST VOTE OFFER

The last extra vote offer of the campaign starts Monday morning and is 125,000 Extra Votes for every club of $20 turned in by a candidate. This is the last remaining vote offer and remains in force until the close of the campaign.

THE CLOSING RULES

The closing rules governing the close of the Logan Republican's big subscription campaign are published in this issue. Look them up and read them carefully. If you do not understand them then come to the campaign office and ask questions until you do understand. The campaign manager is here to help you.

Mr. Stanley L. Prescott entertained for the Delta Nu Fraternity members and their partners last Monday evening at the Frat house. Progressive games were played. The lady's prize was won by Miss Oreta Smith and the gentlemen's going to Mr. Harold Alvord. The decorations, score cards and entire color scheme was carried out in compliment to the Delta Nu standard of red and gold. Miss Nancy Finch assisted Mr. Prescott in receiving and entertaining throughout the evening. Prof. C. R. Johnson sang two numbers and Miss Clarice Hansen gave a piano solo, both of whom were received with applause and appreciation. Refreshments were served, places being laid for fifty-two.

The Logan Post of the American Legion is the recipient of a beautiful token from the ladies of the Unity Circle. The gift is a picture "Sunlight and Shadows," by a local artist, Mr. John Huppi. It is hung at the American Legion quarters at the Commercial club, where it is greatly admired by every one. The ladies are to be congratulated on their choice of such a gift and the boys are certainly to be congratulated on receiving it.

One of the most elaborate affairs of the week was the bridge luncheon given by Mrs. Robert Anderson and Mrs. Ben Meldrum of Ogden at the home of Mrs. Angerson on West Center street. The reception hall and living rooms were a bower of white chrysanthemums while the dining room was beautiful with pink roses and ferns. About twenty-four guests attended, Mrs. A. H. Thompson being high lady and receiving the prize.

The Wobys were entertained by Miss Nellie Hendricks and Mrs. Lettie Sorenson this week at the home of Miss Hendricks. Miss Mae McCarty read two short plays by Lord Dunsay "The Glittering Gate" and "The Golden Dawn." Light refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed.

Mrs. George Smith assisted by her daughter Marjorie entertained at a bridal shower in honor of Miss Florence Cressel, a bride of last week. About twenty guests were in attendance and a very pleasant social evening was enjoyed. Miss Cressel received many pleasing gifts.

The Logan high school theory of music class entertained Prof. and Mrs. Sardon and Miss Laub at the home of Miss Lucille Owen Thursday evening with a dinner party. The evening was spent in educational discussion and social pastime.

The Clio Circle met with Mrs. H. R. McGee at her residence on East Fourth North street. The program was given by Mrs. M. C. Merrill who read from the Harvard Dramatic club series. At the conclusion tea was served.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Deemer left last week for Rexburg, Idaho. Mr. Deemer was formerly connected with the Hotel Eccles of this city and leaves to assume the management of the Hotel Eccles of Rexburg.

Mrs. Wm. H. Green entertained Thursday evening in honor of Miss Cleo Simpson and Mr. B. Bateson. Luncheon was served and covers were laid for eight. The evening was spent in cards and social pastime.

Mrs. Ben Meldrum and little daughter of Ogden are spending a fortnight in this city the guests of Mrs. Meldrum's mother, Mrs. C. W. Nibley.

Mrs. E. W. Dunn and daughter Nadine are the guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister Mrs. E. P. Oldham this week.

The A. C. faculty members and their wives will be entertained at the Women's gymnasium next Monday evening, by the faculty women's league. Prof. Henry Peterson of the city schools will give a lecture, and the balance of the time will be spent socially.

Miss Lettie Jacobsen has returned to California where she will spend the winter visiting relatives and friends at San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Howell spent part of the week in Salt Lake City as the guests of Mrs. Joseph Howell.

Mrs. J. W. West and two little sons of Hood River, Ore. are the guests of Mrs. J. A. West.

Miss Jennie Voorheese was the house guest of Mrs. Norman Ruud last week end.

Mrs. Stephen Hallstone spent last Sunday at the Ogden Hot Springs.

The Braganza Diamond.
The Braganza diamond is a great mystery. Very few people have ever been allowed the privilege of looking at it, and of these few some are of the opinion it is not a diamond at all, but merely a wonderful specimen of white topaz. At any rate, it is generally conceded to be a diamond and is considered the jewel supreme of the crown jewels of the late reigning house of Portugal, the ancestral family of the duke of Braganza.

Interviewing the Minister.
My brother was married young and felt embarrassed. He went to interview the minister relative to the ceremony, and after much stammering, and many blushes, managed this surprising request: "Will you come up to the house and marry me and another girl?"—Chicago Tribune

Good Rules for Life's Conduct.
Those that are perfect men do not easily give credit to everything one tells them; for they know that human frailty is prone to evil, and very subject to fall inwards. It is great wisdom not to be rash in thy proceedings, not to stand stiffly in thine own conceits; as also not to believe everything which thou hearest, nor presently to relate again to others what thou hast heard or dost believe.

Traveling Fingers.
Typists' fingers are the most amazing travelers in creation, and are capable of going tremendous distances without the fatigue that would come to the feet and legs in performing a similar journey. In ordinary typewriting the hand may travel, according to an expert, 10,000 miles a year and not indicate any impairment in efficiency. This refers, of course to the average typist in an office.

Explaining "Yankee."
Yankee "was a cant, favorite word with farmer Jonathan Hastings of Cambridge about 1713. . . . A Yankee good horse, or Yankee elder and the like. . . . The students (of Harvard) used to hire horses of him; their intercourse with him, and his use of the term on all occasions, led them to adopt it."—Will Gordon, "Independence of United States," volume 1, letter 12, page 482.

Strong Family Resemblance.
"Contentment," remarked Shishone, "am a mighty fine thing; de only trouble 'bout it is it's kin o' naid to 'stingish from jes' plain business."—Boston Transcript.
